1. Aims

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy meets the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998, and is based on guidance published by the Information Commissioner's Office and model privacy notices published by the Department for Education.

It also takes into account the expected provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation, which is new legislation due to come into force in 2018.

In addition, this policy complies with regulation 5 of the Education \(Pupil Information\) \(England\) Regulations 2005, which gives parents the right of access to their child's educational record.

4. The data controller

Our school processes personal information relating to pupils, staff, governors and visitors, and, therefore, is a data controller. Our school delegates the responsibility of data controller to the Headteacher.

The school is registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office and renews this registration annually.

5. Data protection principles

The Data Protection Act 1998 is based on the following data protection principles, or rules for good data handling:

- Data shall be processed fairly and lawfully
- Personal data shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes
- Personal data shall be relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose(s) for which it is processed
- Personal data shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date
- Personal data shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for the purpose(s) for which it is processed
- Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects under the Data Protection Act 1998
- Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data, and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data
- Personal data shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless the country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data in relation to the processing of personal data

6. Roles and responsibilities

The Governing Body has overall responsibility for ensuring that the school complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998.

Day-to-day responsibilities rest with the Headteacher, or the Deputy Headteacher in the Headteacher's absence. The Headteacher will ensure that all staff are aware of their data protection obligations, and oversee any queries related to the storing or processing of personal data.

Staff are responsible for ensuring that they collect and store any personal data in accordance with this policy. Staff must also inform the school of any changes to their personal data, such as a change of address.

6.1 Breach of Data Protection

If a breach occurs for example post sent to wrong address with pupil personal information, the School must deal with it effectively. The breach may arise from a theft, a deliberate attack on systems, from the unauthorised use of personal data by a member of staff, or from accidental loss or equipment failure. However the breach occurs Bures Primary School will respond to and manage the incident appropriately.

The Data Controller should assess any risks associated with the breach, as these are likely to affect the action taken once the breach has been contained. In particular, the school will assess the adverse consequences for individuals; how serious or substantial these are; and how likely they are to happen.

Notifying people about an information security breach can be an important part of managing the incident, but it is not an end in itself. Those dealing with the breach should be clear about who needs to be notified and why. The Data Controller may consider notifying the individuals concerned; the Governing Body; the ICO; other regulatory bodies; or other third parties such as the police and the banks; or the media.

It is important that the school investigates the causes of the breach and records all actions taken. Whilst also evaluating the effectiveness of the response to it. If necessary, policies and procedures should be updated accordingly.

We are required, by law, to pass certain information about pupils to specified external bodies, such as our local authority and the Department for Education, so that they are able to meet their statutory obligations.

7.2 Staff

We process data relating to those we employ to work at, or otherwise engage to work at, our school. The purpose of processing this data is to assist in the running of the school, including to:

- Enable individuals to be paid
- Facilitate safe recruitment
- Support the effective performance management of staff

- Inform our recruitment and retention policies

- Personal characteristics, including ethnic groups
- Medical information
- Outcomes of any disciplinary procedures

We will only retain the data we collect for as long as is necessary to satisfy the purpose for which it has been collected.

We will not share information about staff with third parties without consent unless the law allows us to.

We are required, by law, to pass certain information about staff to specified external bodies, such as our local authority and the Department for Education, so that they are able to meet their statutory obligations.

Any staff member wishing to see a copy of information about them that the school holds should contact the Headteacher.

8. Subject access requests

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, pupils have a right to request access to information the school holds about them. This is known as a subject access request.

Subject access requests must be submitted in writing, either by letter, email or fax. Requests should include:

- The pupil's name
- A correspondence address
- A contact number and email address
- Details about the information requested

The school will not reveal the following information in response to subject access requests:

- Information that might cause serious harm to the physical or mental health of the pupil or another individual
- Information that would reveal that the child is at risk of abuse, where disclosure of that information would not be in the child's best interests
- Information contained in adoption and parental order records
- Certain information given to a court in proceedings concerning the child

Subject access requests for all or part of the pupil's educational record will be provided within 15 school days. The table below summarises the charges that apply.

500+	50.00

If a subject access request does not relate to the educational record, we will respond within 40 calendar days. The maximum charge that will apply is £10.00.

9. Parental requests to see the educational record

Under the Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005 (SI 2005/1437) (Pupil Information Regulations) parents have the right of access to their child's educational record, free of charge, within 15 school days of a request.

Personal data about a child belongs to that child, and not the child's parents. This is the case even where a child is too young to understand the implications of subject access rights.

For a parent to make a subject access request, the child must either be unable to understand their rights and the implications of a subject access request, or have given their consent.

The Information Commissioner's Office, the organisation that upholds information rights, generally regards children aged 12 and above as mature enough to understand their rights and the implications of a subject access request. Therefore, most subject access requests from parents of pupils at our school may be granted without the express permission of the pupil.

10. Storage of records

- Paper-based records and portable electronic devices, such as laptops and hard drives, that contain personal information are locked away outside school hours and are all password protected.
- Papers containing confidential personal information should not be left on office and classroom desks, on staffroom tables or pinned to noticeboards where there is general access
- Passwords that are at least 8 characters long containing letters and numbers are used to access school computers, laptops and other electronic devices. Staff and pupils are reminded to change their passwords at regular intervals

Explore. Believe. Shine.
“The Adventure Awaits...”

- Encryption software is used to protect all portable devices and removable media, such as laptops and USB devices
- Staff who store personal information on their personal devices are expected to follow the same security procedures for school-owned equipment

11. Disposal of records

Personal information that is no longer needed, or has become inaccurate or out of date, is disposed of securely.

For example, we will shred or incinerate paper-based records, and override electronic files. We may also use an outside company to safely dispose of electronic records.

12. Training

Our Staff and Governors are provided with data protection training as part of their induction process.

Data protection will also form part of continuing professional development, where changes to legislation or the school's processes make it necessary.

13. The General Data Protection Regulation

We acknowledge that the law is changing on the rights of data subjects and that the General Data Protection Regulation is due to come into force in May 2018.

We will review working practices when this new legislation takes effect and provide training to members of Staff and Governors where appropriate.

14. Monitoring arrangements

The Governors are responsible for monitoring and reviewing this policy.

The Headteacher checks that the school complies with this policy by, among other things, regularly reviewing school records.

This document will be reviewed when the General Data Protection Regulation comes into force, and then every 2 years.

At every review, the policy will be shared with the Governing Body.
